Awards Program

All are invited to attend our awards program Wednesday, June 6, at 10:30 am. This is when the seniors receive their scholarship and/or award monies to put toward college expenses. Also, each grade will have awards presented to various students in their class. We encourage parents to attend this special time. Please note that all students are dismissed at 11:00 and no busing is provided by school districts at this time unless you have made special arrangements. Don't forget to bring your camera!
